

From the Wilkes-Barre Advocate.

Gubernatorial.

Farmer B.—Well neighbor F., I have thought a good deal of the views you expressed in our last talk. I had a talk yesterday with Capt. — on the subject, and he says the principle of protection must be scouted by Democrats. He says most of the Southern Democrats are opposed to it, and unless Northern Democrats go with them, the party will be injured. He admits the justice and necessity of the principle, to the North especially, and that as a Nation it will benefit us, but then in a political point of view he says it will not answer. He says if Southern Democrats would adopt the principle, those of the North would, but if they will not, rather than have the party ruptured we must go with the South.

Mechanic F.—A fig for such reasoning. It is not Democratic. According to that where slaves do the work, and men are lazy nabobs, the people are opposed to the Protective policy. But in the States where white men do the work, and of course in those where they wish to be rid of slavery, the people, knowing it is to their interest, are in favor of the protective policy, but from some party consideration, a portion must oppose it. I go for deciding on principles in reference to their good or bad effect, on my country, and not from their effect on any political party. You believe that however opposed some may be, take us as a whole nation, we are benefited by protection. The greatest good of the greatest number is accomplished by it. Now you have 12 children, and you and your old woman make 14 in family. Now 10 of you are full grown, and nearly so, and can all set conveniently at a table of ordinary height. Some of them not quite so conveniently, while little Caleb can hardly reach up. Now suppose Caleb should insist on your getting a table made large enough for all of you, but just high enough so he could comfortably sit by it in his little cushioned chair, you see if you gratified him, most of you would have to lie down to it, while with the table you use now, most of you are accommodated, and all the rest can be accommodated at it. Would you gratify him?

B.—No. I'd look to the general comfort of the family as a whole, and I'd have Caleb sit on a chair a little higher—suit himself a little to circumstances of good to the greatest number.

F.—That's it exactly. Just so with the protective policy. And suppose Caleb began to snivel, and should declare to Jack, and John, and Pete, that he would not play with them unless they would join with him in insisting on a lower table, would that be a reason why they and the rest of the family should yield to him?

B.—No. We all ought to look to the good of the family generally. I see what you mean. You are right. And if some Southern Democrats will not act with Northern Democrats unless the latter will yield to their whims, the latter must do so, or the party won't act together.

F.—That is the case, and leaders of the party—those who make politics their business for a living—feel a deep interest in keeping the party strong enough to monopolize all the offices. Now why should we, to gratify such men, let our interests go, and the interests of the country? We both agree that the protective policy benefits the Nation—while free-trade policy promises most to a class of politicians.

B.—You are right. I agree with you that as friends of our country we ought to give our suffrages in favor of undoubted friends and advocates of protection. It is in that way the Nation may sustain the policy. As Mr. Irvin is a good man, for nobody says to the contrary, and as he is in the field as a friend to that principle, I believe I will vote for him too.

Wood was selling, two weeks since, in St. Louis, at $8.25 per cord, and coal at 50 cents per bushel.

There are 1,300,000 horses in England, each of which consumes the produce of as much land as would feed eight men.

TO BE FULL OF LIFE one must be full of health, and to be full of health we must have a free, unobstructed circulation of the blood. A disordered liver will blunt the mental perceptions, and a disordered stomach will sour the sweetest temper. To be gloriously "blue," and to be suffering from a derangement of the digestive functions, are the same thing. Personal quarrels and social unhappiness, originate in this cause to a greater extent than people have any idea of. Reform the stomach and you reform the world, for this is the foundation of all reforms. To this end take a dose or two of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills. At this season they would do much good, and will be the means, if directly used, of keeping the system in order during the year. And while they drive pain of all kinds away, they will remove depression of spirits, sourness of temper, and undue excitability, and the whole legion of "devil's blue," and substitute therefor comfort, cheerfulness, happiness.

Beware of Counterfeits.—The public are cautioned against the many spurious medicines, which in order to deceive are called by names similar to Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills. For sale by George H. Miller, Stroudsburg, who is the only authorized agent for that place; see advertisement for other agencies in another column. Office and general depot, 169 Race st., Phila.

MANSION HOUSE.

Mrs. Margaret Eagles

Begs leave respectfully to inform her old friends and the public generally that she has taken the above establishment, which has been, and is now being, fitted up upon the most approved plan, for the accommodation of strangers and travellers.

The long experience which she has had in the business of keeping a hotel or public house, in connection with the favorable location and commodiousness of the Mansion House, she hopes will afford a sufficient guarantee to secure a liberal patronage. Persons visiting town on business or pleasure excursions, will find a comfortable, convenient and quiet home. Jurors and others attending Court are invited to call, and satisfy themselves. Strangers from the city, or elsewhere, who contemplate spending some time in the beautiful and retired village of Stroudsburg, will do well by making the above house their home during their stay here;—in short, all are invited to call.

Transient and steady boarders, by the day or week, accommodated upon the most reasonable terms. Stroudsburg, April 1, 1847.

To be sold at Public Auction.

REPORT

Of the Grand Jury of Monroe County, at February Sessions, 1847, on the Public Buildings.

To the Honourable the Judges of the Courts of Monroe County:

The Grand Jury respectfully report, That in pursuance of a request from the Court in relation to increasing the Court-room, and erecting a new building for the different County offices, fire proof. That after consultation and interchange of sentiment, we have come to the conclusion that it is necessary that the Court-room should be enlarged by taking down the partition between the Court-room and present offices, and a new building erected for the County offices.

HENRY SMITH, Foreman. And now, February 24, 1847, Report read and filed, and the Court order the same to be published in the newspapers of the county. From the Record.

J. H. STROUD, Clerk.

It is Written

In the Book of Nature and Common Sense, that the natural vegetable productions of every country are, if properly applied, are amply sufficient for the cure of every malady incident to each peculiar climate.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, of the North American College of Health, are composed of plants which grow spontaneously on our own soil, and are therefore better adapted to our constitutions than medicines concocted from foreign Drugs, however well they may be compounded; and as they are founded upon the principle that the human body is in truth

Subject to but One Disease, viz: corrupt humors, and that said medicine cures this disease on

Natural Principles by cleansing and purifying the body; it will be manifest, that if the constitution be not entirely exhausted—a perseverance in their use, according to directions, is absolutely certain to drive disease of every name from the body.

When we wish to restore a swamp or morass to fertility, we drain it of the superabundant waters; in like manner if we wish to restore the body to health, we must cleanse it of impurity.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills will be found one of the best, if not the very best medicine in the world for carrying out this

Grand Purifying Principle, because they expel from the body all morbid and corrupt humors, the cause of disease, in an easy and natural manner; and while they every day

Give Ease and Pleasure, disease of every name is rapidly driven from the body.

The following Agencies have been established for the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, in MONROE COUNTY:

- George H. Miller, Stroudsburg; John Lander, Craig's Meadows; Bell & Brothers, Experiment Mills; Henry Kintz, Bartonsville; A. S. Edinger, Tannersville; Joseph Keller & Son, Kellersville; Charles Saylor, Saylorburg; Broadhead & Brother, Duttsburg; William Drake, Snyder'sville. Beware of Counterfeits.—The public are cautioned against the many spurious medicines which in order to deceive, are called by names similar to Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills. Offices devoted exclusively to the sale of Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, wholesale and retail, 169 Race street, Philadelphia; 288 Greenwiche street, New York; and 198 Tremont street, Boston.
